MOTTO

---

One of the things I really believe in is 「Slow, is fast」 .

Furthermore, I'd like to show a quote from a recent movie I saw recently:

You cannot be the winner, because you are not ready to win, and there is no shame in that.

Only in knowing the truth in your heart and not accepting it.

No true hero is born from lies.

Your time will come when you are ready.

Look to the Golden Warrior Asteria.

She did it through true acts of bravery.

Like patience, diligence, and the courage to face the truth.

One day, you'll become all that you dream of and more, and everything will be different.

This world is not yet ready for all that you will do.
